Wela is about showing women that Engineering is not just a male dominated field but that women can also excel in it.

Would you like to:

Be part of a fun group of like-minded female engineering students?

Be part of a group of female engineering students who will support each other holistically?

Meet and engage with qualified women working in the engineering field?

Be mentored and become a mentor in your senior year?

Develop your portfolio, CV and employability?

Have an opportunity to become an exchange student and travel overseas and experience the world?

Participate in the Leadership Development Short Learning Programme which includes exciting workshops and courses?

Be awarded a Leadership Development certificate specifically for female engineering students?

Join wela and have access to a variety of opportunities and workshops. Start your career before you finish studying – become part of the wela network.
