

WELA hosts young female engineers to be

The Women in Engineering Leadership Association (WELA) hosted a group of female learners recently and exposed them to the exciting field of Mechatronics. The learners were taken on a tour of the laboratories and a number of the current women engineering students at NMMU provided testimonials about the benefits they have gained through WELA.

Front left to right: Nosiphelo Ngqoba, Tiyani Ndlovu (NMMU student), Abigail Williams

Middle left to right: Sinovuyo Naki, Nompumelelo Masilingane, Lesly Davids, Nwabisa Maqashalala, Shyán Ross, Lauren Hammond, Ntombikayise Sendo, Nicole Brooks, Amber Collins (NMMU student)

Back left to right: Deon Adams (FORD), Julie Hempel (NMMU Lecturer), Themba Goduka (FORD), Monique Beets